Want to get your congregation talking about a living wage? (Or just curious about it yourself)

EEC (Economic Empowerment Coalition) will be leading an interactive session called a "Cost of Living Workshop." It's a way you can walk a group through determining how much they think it costs to live in Nashville (just the very basic costs), then comparing the number they come up with to the living wage estimate.

It's an effective way to introduce the idea of a living wage to a group, like a Sunday School class, youth group, etc...

Come participate in a sample workshop, and learn how to lead one yourself.
