would like to invite you to the following event:

How We Fixed Medicare: A 2020 Retrospective Tuesday, September 13, at 7:00 p.m.
Flynn Auditorium, Vanderbilt Law School on the Vanderbilt Campus

A public lecture by Larry R. Churchill, Ph.D.
Ann Geddes Stahlman Professor of Medical Ethics and Co-Director of The Center for Biomedical Ethics and Society at Vanderbilt University School of Medicine Secondary appointments in the Graduate Department of Religion, Vanderbilt Divinity School, and the Department of Philosophy

Challenges facing Medicare cannot be solved by addressing healthcare delivery and economic systems alone. They demand an analysis that encompasses legal, theological, social and cultural changes that must accompany an effective response to the impending crisis. As Dr. Churchill presents various scenarios of resolution, he will examine the multiple factors that must be addressed as we confront Medicare in the 21st century.

Sponsored by the Cal Turner Program for Moral Leadership in the Professions

Co-Sponsored by the Vanderbilt University Center for Ethics
