THE CAL TURNER PROGRAM'S FACULTY DISCUSSION SERIES: PROFESSIONS AND PRIVACY INITIATIVE

Anti-terrorism Investigative Powers and the Professions: In or Out of Balance?

Donald Hall, Vanderbilt Law School

Legislation and rules adopted subsequent to 9/11 are designed to better enable police and prosecutors to investigate and prosecute those suspected of terrorism activities. In so doing, however, these may affect the professions in undesirable ways (through intruding upon confidentiality interests, investigating corporations via expanded grand jury powers, and the like). This program will involve an interactive discussion of these issues.

Tuesday, February 15, 2005, 12:10 - 1:00 pm
Bartholomew Room, Law School
Lunch will be provided. Please make reservations.

For more information, or to make reservations, please visit our website at http://www.vanderbilt.edu/moral\_leadership/eventfac.htm#facPP and click on the "Register" button. You may also call the CTP office at 343-5447.
