Divinity Community,

Each year Nashville Art galleries coordinate an event called Artrageous. This is a benefit for Nashville Cares and raises a great deal of money. Here is the website :

<http://www.artrageous.org/host.html>

The event will be held on Nov 8th (a Saturday) and we will need to be at our assigned from 5:30 until 10:00 or so. Our jobs (which are fun!) will be to staff the food tables and drink stations. All we have to do is make sure people are fed and watered and we are good to go.

Several of us have agreed to assist a local gallery named LeQuire this year. It is on Charlotte Pike and I will send directions as we get closer to the date. We currently have 4 folks who have agreed to help with this and the gallery would like for us to have about 6 people...so if 2 of you might be interested....please let me know.

Once our duties are complete, we will receive tickets -- FREE -- to the after party which has proven to be the best people watching event EVER...well most days.

Let me know as soon as possible if you would like to help. We can arrange car pooling if need be as well.
