

MICHAEL A. KASCHAK COLLECTION

1928 – 1932

Biography/History

Michael A. Kaschak attended Vanderbilt University, graduating in 1933 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree.

Scope and Contents

This .21 linear foot collection contains 49 photographs, in 31 folders, of sites around Tennessee; buildings in Nashville, Tennessee; and, buildings on the campuses of George Peabody College and Vanderbilt University.

Tennessee – Outside Nashville

- Lookout Mountain, June 9, 1932 – (1)
- Moccasin Bend and Lookout Battlefield, 1932 – (1)
- Mountain Home – (1)
- Narrows – waterfall – (1)
[dug by slaves during the Civil War]

Tennessee - Nashville

- Fisk University Library, 1932 – (1)
- Fort Nashborough, November 15, 1931 – (2)
- Hermitage, March 25, 1928 – (3)
[Andrew Jackson Home]
- Jackson Square – (1)
- Memorial Square – (1)
- Parthenon, 1932 – (6)
- Percy Warner Park – (3)
- Scarritt Center Tower – (3)
- Show-boat on Cumberland River, November 15, 1931 – (1)
- Tennessee State Capitol – (2)
- Union Station – (1)

George Peabody College

- Administration Building – (1)
- Entrance – Side – (1)
- Home Economics Building – (1)
- Industrial Arts Building (aka Mayborn Building) – (1)
- Library – (1)

Michael A. Kaschak Collection
Page 2

Psychology Building (aka Jessup) – (1)
Social Religious Building – (1)

Vanderbilt University

Buttrick Hall, 1930 – (1)
Calhoun Hall, 1930 – (2)
College Hall (aka Kirkland Hall)
Furman Hall, 1930 – (2)
Graduate School (aka YMCA Building) – (3)
Medical School Building – (1)
Neely Chapel – (1)
Science Hall – (1)
Wesley Hall, November, 1931 – (2)

MICHAEL A. KASCHAK COLLECTION

1928 – 1932

Collection Number: MSS 558

Size: .21 linear feet, 49 items

Special Collections and University Archives

Jean and Alexander Heard Library

Vanderbilt University

Nashville, Tennessee