

Security at Vanderbilt

in compliance with federal and state guidelines 2002/2003

<http://police.vanderbilt.edu>

Welcome to Vanderbilt

This guide is published each year to provide you with information on security-related services offered by the University in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act and the Tennessee College and University Security Information Act. This booklet was prepared with information provided by the Nashville Metropolitan Police Department, the Margaret Cuninggim Women's Center, the Athletic Department, the Office of the Dean of Students, the Office of Housing and Residential Education, and the Vanderbilt University Police Department, and summarizes University programs, policies, and procedures designed to enhance your personal safety while you are here at Vanderbilt.

Vanderbilt University has a work force of more than 13,000 and a student body population of more than 10,000, including 5,093 living in student housing. The Vanderbilt community also encompasses the Vanderbilt University Medical Center, a regional trauma center with a half-million visitors annually. Vanderbilt's location, one and one-half miles from downtown and one street over from Music Row, places it at the heart of Nashville's business and social scenes.

The commonly reported crimes, requests for service, and provisions for the safety of the Vanderbilt community on a 24-hour basis are similar to those of a city. We take the issue of campus security very seriously and are committed in our efforts to maintain a safe, secure environment for our students, faculty, staff, and visitors. Your personal safety is a priority at Vanderbilt. Maintaining a truly safe campus requires a dedicated partnership between the Vanderbilt community and the Vanderbilt University Police Department. Security is everyone's responsibility, and we need your cooperation and assistance to ensure that the Vanderbilt community is a safe place to live, work, and study.

The Police Department

The Police Department comes under the charge of the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Administration. As one of Tennessee's larger law enforcement agencies, the Police Department provides comprehensive law enforcement and security services to all components of Vanderbilt University including the academic campus, Vanderbilt University Medical Center, and a variety of University-owned facilities throughout the Davidson County area. Non-commissioned and commissioned officers staff the department. Commissioned officers are empowered to make arrests as "Special Police Officers," through the authority of the Chief of Police of the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County. Vanderbilt officers with Special Police Commissions have the same authority as municipal law enforcement officers, while on property owned by Vanderbilt, on adjacent public streets and sidewalks, and in nearby neighborhoods. When a Vanderbilt student is involved in an off-campus offense, police officers may assist with the investigation in cooperation with local, state, or federal law enforcement. Metro Nashville police routinely work and communicate with campus officers on any serious incidents occurring on campus or in the immediate neighborhood and business areas surrounding campus. Vanderbilt University operates no off-campus housing or off-campus student organization facilities. However, many graduate students and some undergraduate students live in the neighborhoods surrounding Vanderbilt. While Metro Nashville police have primary jurisdiction in all areas off campus, Vanderbilt officers can and do respond to student-related incidents that occur in close proximity to campus. Vanderbilt officers have direct radio communications with the city police, fire department, and ambulance services to facilitate rapid response in any emergency situation.

The Police Department includes a staff of more than 100 people, organized into two divisions: operations and administration. All of Vanderbilt's commissioned officers have completed officer training at a state-certified police academy. Those officers hold Special Police Commissions and are required to attend annual in-service, as well as on-the-job, training. The Department also employs non-academy-trained officers for security-related functions, and part-time student officers for the escort service.

Traveling Safely Across Campus for Men and Women

- ▶ Stay alert, and trust your instincts. If you feel uneasy, get out or away.
- ▶ Walk, jog, or bike in groups of three or more, in well-lit, well-traveled areas without overgrown foliage, whether traveling between buildings or to and from your car.
- ▶ Appear confident and purposeful.
- ▶ Wear outfits and shoes that allow you to move freely.
- ▶ If you can't find traveling companions, use the escort service on campus, no matter how short the distance.
- ▶ Before parking at night, call or stop by the VU Police Department at 2800 Vanderbilt Place. Ask for an officer to meet you and to escort you from your parking space.
- ▶ Before exiting a building or car, look around the area for anything suspicious. At all times, notice who is around you and what they are doing.
- ▶ Avoid getting near strangers; you don't have to stop and talk to them.
- ▶ If someone is behind you, look to see how close he or she is.
- ▶ If you are being followed, cross the street, walk in the opposite direction, and/or go to the nearest light and populated place.
- ▶ Don't use ATMs (automated bank teller machines) alone, at night, or when someone suspicious is nearby.
- ▶ Know where emergency phones are located and how they operate.
- ▶ Pay attention to community security alerts; keep up with campus and Nashville news regarding nearby crime.
- ▶ Think about what you would do under dire circumstances.
- ▶ Try to keep a cool head in getting a description.

Physical Security on Campus

The administrator for each facility is responsible for determining access to University classroom and administrative buildings. In general, classroom buildings are locked after the last class in the building ends, and administrative buildings are locked after normal business hours. Access to libraries and computer labs after hours is determined by individual administrators. Access to the Medical Center after hours is generally through the Emergency Room, and most other entrances are locked or restricted to electronic key card access for employees.

Student housing consists of single and double rooms, suites, and graduate and family apartments. Freshmen are randomly assigned housing by computer. Upperclass students are assigned by random drawing. After the first two weeks of the semester, students may request changes in housing assignment. Many residential buildings are accessed via electronic key card and have front desk attendants during the hours of darkness and twenty-four hours a day on weekends. Front desk attendants respond to a variety of situations and have been trained in University resources, customer service skills, and the operation of door and fire alarm panels. Persons who are not guests of residents generally are not permitted in dormitories. Visitors should be escorted by their hosts at all times or be able to provide a copy of the guest registration form, if requested to do so.

Most dormitory exit doors will trigger an audible, monitored alarm, if they are opened during darkness. Individual student rooms have unmarked keys to prevent unauthorized use if they should be lost. All operable windows have securing mechanisms and screens that are held in place with screws. During breaks and University holidays, exterior doors of dorms are secured by housing staff and checked by security officers.

Limited housing is available for students who want to remain on campus during holiday and vacation periods and must be requested by the student for these periods.

Signs on the borders of campus alert visitors that they are subject to security checks. Each fall, representatives from the Police Department, the Office of Housing and Residential Education, Plant Operations, Campus Planning, and student organizations survey the campus grounds to assess the lighting and foliage conditions.

Crime Prevention Tips

PERSONAL SAFETY

- ▶ Walk or jog in groups of three or more.
- ▶ Avoid isolated or dark areas.
- ▶ Travel with confidence and purpose.
- ▶ Do not wear earphones while walking or jogging.
- ▶ Know the locations of emergency phones.
- ▶ Do not use ATMs at night.
- ▶ Stay alert, and plan ahead for “What if...?”

RESIDENTIAL/WORKPLACE SAFETY

- ▶ Know your neighbors or co-workers; you are the best one to determine who does not belong.
- ▶ Do not prop open exterior doors.
- ▶ If you come in through an electronic key card access door, do not allow strangers to enter with you on your code. They should have their own cards and codes.
- ▶ Always lock your door when you leave.
- ▶ Lock your door while you sleep or when you work late.
- ▶ Get involved. If you see someone you consider suspicious or out of place, CALL VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY POLICE IMMEDIATELY.

PROTECTING YOUR PROPERTY

- ▶ Register your bicycle with the Police Department.
- ▶ Mark and record your belongings with the Police Department through Operation ID.
- ▶ Keep your car locked. Store items of value in the trunk.
- ▶ Coats, backpacks, and purses should remain with you or be locked up.

Medical Center Shuttle Service

The Vanderbilt University Medical Center (VUMC) shuttle service operates between the Medical Center and distant parking lots on weekdays only. VUMC shuttle service is not available on weekends. For VUMC shuttle information, call 6-1215 (936-1215 from off-campus phones).

Please be patient on ballgame nights and at other times when traffic is congested. Your shuttle's arrival may be delayed at those times.

SHUTTLE TIPS

When leaving a shuttle bus, try to walk in groups; if you are alone, and your destination is only a few feet away, ask the driver to pause and watch you. Should you have a problem, inform the appropriate shuttle supervisor in a timely fashion, so that future difficulties might be avoided.

Escort Service

The Police Department administers the SafeTrips escort program at Vanderbilt University. SafeTrips includes both a modified walking escort service and a van service. The walking escort provides efficient door-to-door security for students. The telephone number to call for a walking escort is 421-8888 off campus or 1-8888 on campus. We encourage students to take advantage of this program as a way to significantly increase their personal safety as they traverse the campus at night.

As a supplement to the security provided by the walking escort, a van service is operated from dusk to 2 a.m. (5 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday mornings). The vans follow a continuous loop around campus with the following thirteen stops: Police Headquarters, Lupton Dormitory on Branscomb Quadrangle, 24th Avenue between Carmichael Towers East and West, the parking area outside of Mims Dormitory, Heard Library, Wesley Place Garage, Payne Hall, Hill Student Center, Memorial Hall, North Hall on Peabody Campus, the Blair School of Music, and Lewis Hall at Morgan Circle. Each stop is clearly marked by a sign. The stops were chosen based both on location and on the accessibility of a secure waiting area. The vans on each route are estimated to reach each stop once every hour, traffic allowing. In addition, a walking escort can be requested to walk a student from the final destination. The van is accessible to students with mobility impairments.

Cabs on the Card

Students may purchase vouchers at campus Varsity Markets on campus with their Vanderbilt Cards. These vouchers can be used for taxi transportation to Elliston Place and other nearby locations.

Crime Prevention and Safety Awareness Education

Crime prevention and personal safety awareness programs are available through several different departments at Vanderbilt. The following departments and organizations sponsor prevention services and provide advice and educational programs:

- Police Department
- Housing and Residential Education
- Office of Alcohol and Other Drug Education
- Psychological and Counseling Center
- Employee Assistance
- Employee Relations
- Student Health Center
- Opportunity Development Center
- Margaret Cuninggim Women's Center
- International Student and Scholar Services

Student organizations and associations routinely sponsor programs and speakers on personal safety and awareness. Several departments combine resources and sponsor annual safety-related events such as Alcohol Awareness Week, Safe Spring Break Week, and VUMC Safety and Crafts Fair.

Each of the student residential areas has at least one program on security issues each year. The Police Department provides talks and information on request on the following topics: rape and sexual assault prevention, domestic violence education, workplace violence education and prevention, personal safety, RAD (Rape Aggression Defense) classes, victim assistance, and personal property protection. The Department will also conduct security surveys of areas or buildings, when requested to make physical security recommendations.

Reporting Crimes and Other Emergencies

Vanderbilt University does not have a voluntary confidential reporting program, and all victims are encouraged to report crimes and emergencies to the campus police at (615) 322-2745. Vanderbilt officers are primary responders to any emergency or criminal situation on campus. Direct radio and phone communications with local police, fire, and emergency medical services ensures that officers can initiate and direct necessary emergency responders to the area. In an emergency situation, dialing 911 from any Vanderbilt telephone will contact the Vanderbilt Police Department communications center. A trained dispatcher will then direct the appropriate response to your emergency. For non-emergency calls to the Police Department, call 2-2745 from any Vanderbilt phone or (615) 322-2745 from off-campus or public phones.

Emergency Telephones

More than 100 emergency telephones are located throughout the University campus and Medical Center parking areas. Most emergency phones look like pay phones without dial faces and are clearly labeled “Emergency.” Some of the phones are enclosed in red metal boxes with a light on top, and some of the phones will activate a blue strobe light when the receiver is picked up. When someone picks up the receiver or presses the emergency button on any of these phones in an emergency situation, the phone automatically dials the Police Department dispatcher. Touch-tone speakerphones equipped with red “Emergency” buttons are located at the main entrances to all dormitories. Pushing one of these emergency buttons will connect the caller directly with the security communications center. An open line on any emergency phone will activate a priority response from an officer. An officer will be sent to check on the user of the phone, even if nothing is communicated to the dispatcher. Cooperation is essential to help us maintain the integrity of the emergency phone system. These phones should be used only for actual or perceived emergency situations. Phone locations are based on recommendations from the University community. Suggestions are welcome.

Crime Response

Vanderbilt University Police Department procedures require that calls for service involving crimes against persons and life/safety issues, such as fire or injury, receive priority response from the department. Property crimes in progress, and other criminal acts with a high potential for violence, would also necessitate a rapid response. Requests for officers to file reports on criminal acts not actually in progress, or general assistance requests, are taken in the order received.

The Department's response to crime at Vanderbilt is much the same as that of any other urban law enforcement agency. An incident is documented with a report, which is then filed with the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department. Police Department officers will preserve and collect evidence on property crime incidents occurring at the University. For incidents involving crimes of a sexual nature, or in the case of a crime of violence against a person, the Metro Nashville Police Department will be the primary investigating agency, with Police Department officers assisting. The cooperative working relationship between the two departments ensures that a victim of a crime at Vanderbilt will receive the combined efforts and resources of both departments.

Enhanced community awareness is an integral part of crime prevention at Vanderbilt. Security Alerts are distributed to members of the Vanderbilt community as part of an ongoing effort to keep the community informed and to raise awareness of significant unsolved crimes that occur at or near the University. Alerts are distributed by mail, fax, and postings on public bulletin boards and Vanderbilt e-mail lists, and through the Department's Web page. Persons who would like to receive Security Alerts via e-mail should visit <http://police.vanderbilt.edu>.

The Vanderbilt University Police Department maintains a daily crime log in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act and the Tennessee College and University Security Information Act. The crime log is available in two formats. Persons may view a copy at our headquarters located at 2800 Vanderbilt Place during normal business hours or they may view it on our Web site at <http://police.vanderbilt.edu>.

Victims of crime at Vanderbilt can expect to be treated with professional courtesy and compassion. Vanderbilt officers will assist and guide victims in the process of reporting and prosecuting through the criminal justice system or the University. The University offers counseling and support services through several departments. The Police Department also works closely with the District Attorney's Victim-Witness Program, as well as Metro Nashville's Victim Intervention Program.

Weapons

Tennessee law and University policy prohibit anyone other than Vanderbilt's commissioned officers to carry a weapon on campus. Students who plan to use weapons in legal recreational activities may store them at the Police Department for safekeeping. Proper ID and the receipt are required before the Department can return a weapon.

Criminal Convictions

Criminal convictions prior to employment at Vanderbilt will not necessarily bar employment. Falsification of application materials, however, including failure to disclose convictions or guilty pleas for any violation of the law, whether or not the employee served time, is grounds for termination of employment at any time after the falsification is discovered.

Being convicted of a crime outside the workplace may render a staff member unsuitable for continued employment. Vanderbilt reserves the right to terminate employment if an individual is convicted of a crime, even if the crime did not occur on Vanderbilt time or premises. If an employee is convicted of a crime, the employee is required to notify his or her immediate supervisor within five (5) days of the conviction. Failure to report a conviction, or being convicted of a crime that makes a person unsuitable for continued employment, may be grounds for termination of employment.

Sexual Offender Registration

The Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) maintains the TBI Sexual Offender Registry, a central information and registration system of sexual offenders located in Tennessee. Information concerning registered sexual offenders can be obtained from the TBI Sexual Offender Registry by calling 1-888-837-4170 from 8:00 a.m. until 4:30 P.M. CST Monday through Friday (excluding holidays) or on the TBI Internet Web site at www.ticic.state.tn.us/SEX_ofndr/search_short.asp

Sexual Assault Prevention and Response

The University educates the student community about sexual assaults and date rape through mandatory freshman orientations each fall. The Police Department offers sexual assault education and information programs to University students and employees upon request. Literature on date rape education, risk reduction, and University response is available through the Office of Housing and Residential Education.

If you are a victim of a sexual assault at Vanderbilt, your first priority should be to get to a place of safety. You should then obtain necessary medical treatment. The Vanderbilt Police Department strongly advocates that a victim of sexual assault report the incident in a timely manner. Time is a critical factor for evidence collection and preservation. An assault should be reported directly to a Vanderbilt officer and/or to a Housing and Residential Education representative. Filing a police report with a Vanderbilt officer will not obligate the victim to prosecute, nor will it subject the victim to scrutiny or judgmental opinions from officers. Filing a police report will

- ▶ ensure that a victim of sexual assault receives the necessary medical treatment and tests, at no expense to the victim
- ▶ provide the opportunity for collection of evidence helpful in prosecution, which cannot be obtained later (ideally a victim of sexual assault should not wash, douche, use the toilet, or change clothing prior to a medical/legal exam)
- ▶ assure the victim has access to free confidential counseling from counselors specifically trained in the area of sexual assault crisis intervention.

When a sexual assault victim contacts the Police Department, the Metro Nashville Police Sex Crimes Unit will be notified as well. A representative from the Office of Housing and Residential Education will also be notified. The victim of a sexual assault may choose for the investigation to be pursued through the criminal justice system, the University Conduct Council, or both. A University representative from the Police Department or the Office of Housing and Residential Education will guide the victim through the available options and support the victim in his or her decision. Various counseling options are available from the University through the Student Health Center, the Women's Center, University Ministries, Employee Assistance, and the Psychological and Counseling Center. Counseling and support services outside the Vanderbilt system can be obtained through the Rape and Sexual Abuse Center of Nashville and the Victim Intervention Program of the Metro Nashville Police Department.

University disciplinary proceedings, as well as special guidelines for cases involving sexual misconduct, are detailed in the Student Handbook. The Handbook provides, in part, that the accused and the victim will each be allowed to choose one person who has had no formal legal training to accompany them throughout the hearing. Both the victim and accused will be informed of the outcome of the hearing. A student found guilty of violating the University sexual misconduct policy could be criminally prosecuted in the Tennessee courts and may be suspended or expelled from the University for the first offense. Student victims have the option to change their academic and/or on-campus living situations after an alleged sexual assault, if such changes are reasonably available.

Alcohol and Illegal Drug Use on Campus

Vanderbilt University is concerned about the unlawful and irresponsible use of alcohol and other drugs. To address this issue, the Office of Alcohol and Other Drug Education was established in 1997 and serves the University community by providing programs, resources, and activities for students. This office is responsible for educational programs, awareness campaigns, advising student organizations on alcohol and other drug issues (GAMMA, Certified Peer Educators, CHEERS), data collection, and support of alcohol-free social programs.

The Student Handbook states the University's position on alcohol and illegal drug use, in part, as follows:

Vanderbilt University prohibits the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students, faculty, and staff on its property or as part of any University-sponsored activities. This prohibition extends to off-campus activities that are officially sponsored by Vanderbilt. It also extends to off-campus professional activities of Vanderbilt faculty and staff, including attendance at professional conferences, when the University sponsors those activities. Vanderbilt University will impose disciplinary sanctions on students, faculty, and staff, up to and including expulsion or termination of employment and referral for prosecution, for violation of this policy.

Additional standards of conduct, disciplinary standards, and procedures may be found in the Student Handbook, the Faculty Manual, the Staff Handbook, the Medical Center Alcohol and Drug Use Policy, and any applicable union contract.

Tennessee's legal drinking age is twenty-one (21). University policy states that alcoholic beverages may not be served to persons under twenty-one years of age. Additionally, the policy provides the following penalties:

The minimum penalty for a student who illegally distributes alcohol to an underage student will be probation for the first offense, and suspension for the second offense. The operation of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs is prohibited (by University policy). For the first offense, the minimum penalty is disciplinary probation plus loss of campus driving and parking privileges. Suspension is the minimum penalty for the second offense. Students are also subject to arrest and prosecution.

Tennessee alcohol and controlled substances laws and penalties are detailed in the Student Handbook. As an additional resource, the Office of General Counsel has developed a booklet, "Drug and Alcohol Regulations for Students, Faculty, and Staff." For a copy of the booklet, contact the administrative office of Human Resource Services. University and community counseling resources are listed in the Reference Phone Number section of this booklet.

Crime Statistics 1999-2001

The chart below provides Vanderbilt's statistics for Part A offenses and liquor law violations. The Police Department works closely with the Office of Housing and Residential Education to ensure the accuracy of the campus crime statistics. At the University, the reported incidents are entered into a computer database and reported to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation's Statistical Unit on a monthly basis.

Hate Crimes — The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act requires the reporting of incidents in which prejudice against race, religion, sexual orientation, or ethnicity is employed during the commission of a crime. The type of bias or prejudice will have a superscript notation for the type of bias. Key to hate crime notations is:

- Race = ra
- Gender = g
- Religion = re
- Sexual Orientation = s
- Ethnicity = e
- Disability = d

The Vanderbilt Police Department has not responded to any criminal offenses in which prejudice was involved in 1999, 2000, or 2001.

In compliance with federal law, including the provisions of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Vanderbilt University does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, religion, color, national or ethnic origin, age, disability, or military service in its administration of educational policies, programs, or activities; its admissions policies; scholarship and loan programs; athletic or other University-administered programs; or employment. In addition, the University does not discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation consistent with University non-discrimination policy. Inquiries or complaints should be directed to the Opportunity Development Officer, Baker Building, VU Station B #351809, Nashville, Tennessee 37235-1809. Telephone: (615) 322-4705 (V/TDD); fax (615) 343-4969.
