

WILLIAM H. WITT

1951

Collection Number: MSS 521

Size: 1 item

Special Collections and University Archives

Jean and Alexander Heard Library

Vanderbilt University

Nashville, Tennessee

WILLIAM H. WITT

1951

Biography/History

William H. Witt was born in Lynnville, Tennessee (Giles County). He attended the Webb School, received a B.A. from Vanderbilt, and in 1894 he received a M.D. from Vanderbilt University School of Medicine. He served in the U. S. Army Medical Corp. in France from 1912-1919.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains a dinner speech titled "McGuffey and his Readers" which was delivered before the Old Oak Club on March 26, 1938. It also contains one program from the testimonial dinner in honor of Dr. William H. Witt on February 14, 1951, for his 85th Birthday Celebration. The program contains the printed remarks from the following people:

Dr. N. S. Shofner.
Edwin Mims
Lucius E. Burch
W. M. McCabe
J. O. Manier
W. B. Anderson
H. H. Shoulders
William H. Witt