PHILO OF ALEXANDRIA. GREGORY E. STERLING

Works by Philo of Alexandria

Includes

Philo’s Commentaries: The Questions and Answers. A “zetematic work” that uses questions and answers to work through the texts of Genesis 2:4-28:9 (QG 1-4) and Exodus 6:2-30:10 (QE 1-2).

The Allegorical Commentary, a series of consecutive treatises, emphasizes the allegory of the soul in the interpretation of Genesis 2:1-41:24 (Alleg. Interpret. 1-3, Cherubim, Sacrifices, Worse, Posterity, Giants and Unchangeable, Agriculture, Planting, Drunkenness 1-2 (one lost), Sobriety, Confusion, Migration, Heir, Prelim. Studies, Flight, Names, Dreams 1-5 (only 2-3 are extant).

The Exposition of the Law. A thematic commentary on the law spans the entire Pentateuch (Rewards 1-3), more like rewritten Bible than a commentary proper (Creation, Abraham, Joseph, Decalogue, Spec. Laws 1-4, Virtues, Rewards).
