The Lytle-Tate Papers: The Correspondence of Andrew Lytle and Allen Tate.

Thomas Daniel Young and Elizabeth Sarcone, eds. Jackson: University Press of Mississippi, 1987.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Papers of Andrew Nelson Lytle (1902-1995), author, educator, editor, critic and Vanderbilt University alumnus (B.A. 1925), were acquired in 1998 from Mr. Lytle's son-in-law and literary executor, George Chamberlain. A preliminary organization was performed on the collection in 1998, but until now had not been fully processed.

The Andrew Nelson Lytle Papers, 1853-1995, include correspondence, writings, research materials, reviews, publicity, financial documents, photographs, family records and writings by others. The collection documents, in varying extent, Lytle's literary and academic careers, his strong family ties, his relationship with his beloved wife and children, and his friendships which include many fellow writers, academic colleagues and devoted students. There is also a substantial amount of papers chronicling the Lytle, Nelson and related families of Tennessee.

For details of Lytle's life and works, the following are recommended:

SERIES AND SUBSERIES DESCRIPTIONS

Series I. Correspondence, 1853-1995

The Correspondence Series is contained in 14 boxes of this collection. The correspondence is subdivided into Outgoing (1942-1986), Incoming (1923-1995), Personal (1922-1975), Family (1853-1895), and Not To Or From Lytle (1910-1986). Most of the outgoing correspondence is dated from the 1960's through the 1970's. The bulk of the correspondences are incoming letters. Personal correspondence varies from family correspondence due to the family correspondence was neither written nor received by Lytle.

Series II. Writings, 1931-1989

Writings by Andrew Lytle make up three boxes within this collection. These writings, many of which are published copies, include the genres of collections, essays, novels, short stories, speeches, and tributes. Notable within this series are genealogical notes of research material that Lytle used for A Wake For The Living. The date ranges for this series are taken from the publishing date on the documents themselves. The dates are not from the work's original publishing date or from the compilation date. Some dates for writings in this series are unknown. There is oversize material for this series.

Series III. Literary Career, 1934-1993

This series focuses on the literary career of Mr. Lytle and covers documents that relate to his writings, contracts, publicity, reviews, royalty statements, the Sewanee Review, and other miscellaneous material.

Series IV. Agrarians, 1984-1989

The Agrarian series only comprises of four folders and consists of clippings and articles that relate to the Agrarian movement of which Lytle was a member. This series contains oversize material.

Series V. Academic Career, 1965-1990

The fifth series covers the academic career of Andrew Lytle and includes information that concerns classes, programs, recommendations, The University of Florida, and The University of the South (Sewanee). Most recommendations were written by Lytle when he was a professor of English and editor of the Sewanee Review at The University of the South. Included within this series is a 1978 certificate of membership awarded to Lytle by Phi Beta Kappa for "high attainments in liberal scholarship." Also in this series is a program for a function held in honor of Andrew Nelson Lytle titled "A Celebration" in 1982. The program list patrons in attendance as well as toasts and speeches given by Robert Penn Warren, Donald Davie, Cleanth Brooks, Walter Sullivan, Stuart Wright, and Thomas R. Ward.

Series VI. Biographical/Personal Information, 1921-1995

Biographical and personal information is included in the sixth series. This series contains information regarding clippings, financial information, invitations, the Monteagle Sunday School Assembly, 103 photographs, student days, and other information. A few folders containing fragmented material are also included. There is also oversize material included in this series.

Within the first folder of this series is a letter written by Lytle in regards to his “family articles” that he has given to his children and grandchildren. The document is a list of items (family articles), to whom they were given to and their dates. The letter states the document was written after Lytle’s 78th birthday. Signed and dated by Lytle.

This series contains a fare amount of genealogical data, probably used for his novel, A Wake for the Living.

Also included within this series is a guestbook for the “Celebration of Andrew Nelson Lytle’s ninetieth birthday on the occasion of the Sewanee Review Centennial. Convocation Hall, The University of the South. November 8, 1992.” Signatures of attendees are included.

Another note of interest is an invitation to Prince Andrew and Sarah Ferguson’s wedding on July 23, 1986 aboard the S.S. Queen Elizabeth 2.

Lytle’s passports from 1921 and 1924 are contained in this series as well. The 1924 passport is from Lytle’s European tour in which he later wrote his Journal of European Tour: 1 July – 6 September 1924

Series VII. Family Papers, 1896-1989

This series concerns Lytle’s family. The family papers series has material such as diaries, financial information, genealogical documents, and other information that concerns Lytle’s family. Included within this series are family trees for Robert Lytle and William Mutree. Although the documents appear to be copies, both have extensive genealogical information. There is oversize material in this series.

Series VIII. Writings By Others, 1973-1995

This series comprises of numerous writings others have sent to Andrew Lytle to read. Documents within this series are alphabetized by the creator of the work. Some of the authors in this series are former students of Lytle. The documents have a broad range of genres and cover many subject areas. However, there are documents that are writings about Lytle himself, Lytle’s works, and some are about the effect Lytle had on that particular person that was writing the document. Also included within this series are comparisons between Lytle and other writers. Oversize material is included within this series.

Series IX. Fragments, N.D.

This series contains material that does not clearly fit within any of the other series. There are 4 items within this series that are included in the oversize material.

Series X. Envelopes, N.D.

Envelopes from correspondence make up this series.
