

Survey for Long-Range Planning

The Margaret Cuninggim Women's Center is interested in finding out how much members of the Vanderbilt community know about its goals and programs, and what you would like the Center to do in the future. Please fill in the spaces as indicated. ALL QUESTIONNAIRES WILL BE ANALYZED ANONYMOUSLY. Thank you for participating in this survey.

1. Please indicate how much you know about the Cuninggim Center and what it does:
- I know nothing about the Center.
- I have some specific knowledge of the Center.
- I have a vague idea of what the Center does.

If you know nothing about the Center, please go on to question #3. If you have some knowledge about the Center, please describe in a few words what the Cuninggim Center does.

2. Based on what you know about the Center, do you think the Cuninggim Center is effective:
- a. identifying needs of women on campus? Yes No
- b. organizing programs useful to women? Yes No
- c. promoting women's achievements? Yes No
- d. supporting equality of the sexes? Yes No
- e. other (specify) _____

3. How important do you believe it is to have a women's center on campus?
- Not important Moderately important Very important

4. Have you ever come to the Cuninggim Center? Yes No
- If not, do you know where the Center is located? Yes No

5. If you have come to the Center in the past, what was your purpose?
- Use library Attend program Meet or consult
- Have never come to the Center

6. Have you ever attended a program sponsored by the Cuninggim Center but held at another location on campus? Yes No

7. How often do you read Women's VU (Cuninggim Center newsletter)?
- Regularly Occasionally Rarely Never, although I've seen it
- I've never seen a copy

8. Have you ever taken a women's studies course or a course focusing on gender issues?
- Yes No

9. How do you feel about the Center's activities?
- They're important to me personally
- They're important, but not to me personally
- I don't know anything about the Center
- They are not very important

10. What issues or topics would you like the Cuninggim Center to emphasize in its program?
-

11. When would you be most likely to participate in a program? Early morning Noon
- Late afternoon Evening Weekend Not likely to participate

12. Which program format would you most likely participate in?
 Lecture Workshop Small group Informal discussions on specific topics
 Not likely to attend program Other _____
13. How do you decide which activity/program to participate in? (Rank in order with 1 as the most important.)
 Day of week Time of day Topic or theme Format Location
 Friends are going I don't go to any programs
 Other (specify) _____
14. Sex F M 15. Race _____ 16. Age _____
17. Are you a student, staff member, or faculty member at VU? Yes No If not, please skip to question 21.
18. Student: _____ School _____ Class Greek Independent
19. Staff: University Central Medical
20. Faculty: _____ school
21. How far did you go in school? High school College Postgraduate
22. Do you think women have problems at Vanderbilt that men are not likely to have? Yes No Don't know
23. If you answered Yes to #22, what are these? _____

24. How did you receive this questionnaire? Subscriber to Women's VU Someone gave me a copy
 Picked up a copy on campus Other _____

COMMENTS:

*Thank you for answering these questions. Watch for a report of the findings in Women's VU in a few months.
 If you would be willing to participate in a focus group during spring term to discuss the work of the Cuninggim Center, please call 322-4843 and leave your name, address, and phone number. THANK YOU.*

Margaret Cuninggim Women's Center
 Vanderbilt University
 Franklin Bldg., West Side Row
 Box 1513, Station B
 Nashville, TN 37235