Paste Paper and Bookmaking Workshops to be held in November

Do you remember how finger painting was so much fun? If you like making art that's expressive and want some messy zen in your day, come to the paste paper workshop Nov. 14. You'll work with mixed acrylics and paste, using a decorating technique that's hundreds of years old.

On Friday Nov. 15, we'll meet to turn paper into a multiple-signature, hardcover, hand-sewn book. Participants can use their paste paper on their books or book cloth. Come learn key basics of hand bookbinding: paper grain, gluing techniques, and folding. Both workshops will be led by expert Jace Graf. More
