Nashville CARES, the Interfaith Alliance and Scarritt-Bennett Center, Along with several community partners invite you to an Interfaith service commemorating World AIDS Day. The service will be Monday, December 1st, at 6pm in Wightman Chapel on the Scarritt-Bennett campus. In addition to attending the service, there are other ways you are Invited to participate. If you have loved ones who have died from AIDS-related complications, you are welcome to email their names to Paula Foster at Nashville CARES (pfoster@Nashvillecares.org) who will compile the names which will be during a candle lighting at the service. Know that names will be read with first name and last initial only.

There will be a community choir singing for the service, and all are Invited to participate. Rehearsal begins promptly at 5pm, one hour before the service. Ability to read music is very helpful, but not necessary. For more information please contact Jason Shelton (jshelton@scarrittbennett.org).

Please join us for our monthly First Friday service on Friday, December 5, at 6:00 at Christ Church Cathedral. The theme for this month is "My Heart Rejoices: An Observance of Advent." In addition to the Gallery Musicians and Epiphany Dance Company, our special guest will be jazz vocalist, Annie Sellick, joined by saxophonist Sam Levine, in a premier performance of "Magnificat in D for Chick Singer and Soprano Sax." The Cathedral is located at 900 Broadway in downtown Nashville. Phone number 255-7729. Childcare provided. Great reception after the service. Hope to see you there! Thanks! Alice Nichols
