Vanderbilt's Center for the Study of Religion and Culture and Nashville Public Television present a screening of the PBS program, "The Question of God."

Does God exist? How we answer this question says a lot about who we are and what we believe. And no two scholars of the 20th century articulated the intricacies and implications of this question better than Sigmund Freud and C.S. Lewis. In September, Nashville Public Television will air a two-part series entitled THE QUESTION OF GOD: C.S. LEWIS AND SIGMUND FREUD WITH DR. ARMAND NICHOLI, but before the broadcast, NPT and the Center for the Study of Religion and Culture at Vanderbilt University invites the public to a special sneak preview of this fascinating program and panel discussion with Vanderbilt professors.

The panel will include CSRC Directors Douglas Knight, professor of Hebrew Bible at the Divinity School, and Volney Gay, Professor and Chair of Religious Studies. Professor Patout Burns, Malloy Chair of Catholic Studies, and Susan Ford Wiltshire, Professor and Chair of Classical Studies will also join the panel. This event will be held on Monday Sept. 13 at 7 p.m. in the Vanderbilt Stadium Club at 201 25th Ave. South and is free and open to the public.

Free parking provided in the Stadium Club parking garage behind the Marriott hotel.

THE QUESTION OF GOD: C.S. LEWIS AND SIGMUND FREUD WITH DR. ARMAND NICHOLI, will air on NPT-Channel 8 Wednesdays, Sept. 15 and 22 from 8-10 p.m.

For more details, e-mail: csrc@vanderbilt.edu

A benefit for Cross-Cultural Solutions, an international volunteer organization, will be held Wednesday, Sept.15 at the Belcourt Theater. Tickets are $12.50. Food will be provided by Wild Oats beginning at 6pm and music will begin at 7pm featuring Jeff Coffin Mu'tet and Futureman (both Flecktones from Bela Fleck and the Flecktones) as well as Sarah Siskind and Tom Mitchell. Visit www.crossculturalsolutions.org for more information about the organization.

THE CAL TURNER PROGRAM FOR MORAL LEADERSHIP IN THE PROFESSIONS is pleased to present an event for students.

COMMANDING HEIGHTS Video Series -- BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND

Based on the book "Commanding Heights: The Battle for the World Economy," by Daniel Yergin and Joseph Stanislaw, this 3-part, two-hour video series examines globalization, world trade and economic development, including the forces, values, events, and ideas that have shaped the present global economic system.

Thursday, September 9, 16, 23 5:30-7:30 p.m., followed by discussion, led by Professor Bart Victor (Owen Graduate School of Management), on September 9 and 23. You may come to one, two, or all three nights.

Episode One: The Battle of Ideas (September 9)

Episode Two: The Agony of Reform (September 16)

Episode Three: The New Rules of the Game (September 23)

Pizza will be served on each of the three nights. To reserve a spot, call the CTP Office at 343-5447.
