

THE GREEN BUBBLE

My Year in Baghdad as an Embedded Professor

KATHERINE CARROLL
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Thursday, September 17, 4:10 p.m.
Bishop Joseph Johnson Black Cultural Center

Professor Carroll spent a year in Iraq as a participant in the Human Terrain Systems Program, a United States military plan which places social scientists with combat brigades in Iraq and Afghanistan. Her talk will reflect upon her experiences embedded with the U.S. Army in Iraq.

Sponsored by the Robert Penn Warren Center for the Humanities
